

James Wimer, Massacre of the Indians in Lancaster (Lancaster, 1841), Digital Paxton.

Sourcing a Document or Image
AP US History Format

Step 1: Individual Analysis

Initial Conclusion: Based on your observations and conclusions above, how does the document answer to the key question?

What is the historical context of the document/image?

What specific evidence and context clues from this document supports your conclusion?

What is the point of view the author/artist?

What specific evidence and context clues from this document supports your conclusion?

Who is the intended audience of the document/image? What specific evidence and context clues from this document supports your conclusion?	What is the intended purpose of the document/image? What specific evidence and context clues from this document supports your conclusion?
--	--

Step 2: Pair/Group Analysis

What new information / specific evidence about the historical context was provided by your team? Do you have consensus on the historical context of the document/image? Why or why not?	What new information / specific evidence about the point of view was provided by your team? Do you have consensus on the point of view of the document/image? Why or why not?
---	---